Professional Experience

As an Industrial Advisor, Chris is involved in cultivating new business and expanding client relationships while also focusing on industrial leasing and sales by serving existing clients through site selection, tenant representation and landlord representation services. Additionally, with 15 years of experience in investment real estate, Chris Miller specializes in representing clients in the disposition and acquisition of investment properties in Mid and West Michigan. He has achieved the SIOR (Society of Industrial and Office Realtors) designation, joining an elite group of 3,300 members worldwide that are recognized as the most capable and experienced brokerage practitioners in any market.

A native of Lansing, Chris got his start in the commercial real estate field while attending Michigan State University and working as an intern at Martin. Prior to his current role at Martin, he gained experience at Marcus and Millichap in both Southfield, MI and Charlotte, NC. Chris' background working in both brokerage and analyst positions enables him to provide sound advice to both national and local clients in the disposition of their investment real estate assets.
